We regret that due to the nature of the event (immediate, unlimited recording access), refunds are not available. Please look carefully at what is offered in this year's Virtual Encore, as it is different from other virtual events ACBS has offered in the past.

It is the responsibility of the registrant to make sure that they have received information related to virtual access. If you are registered and do not receive an email granting you access please contact staff@contextualscience.org. Members, following the instructions in their registration confirmation email, should have access within 5 minutes of registration. Non-members, or those paying via PayPal, need ACBS staff to grant them access manually, which can take up to 48 hours (excluding weekends), but may be granted sooner.

We regret that we are unable to provide extended access to any registrant beyond 10 November 2024.
